AUTHORITY

The Executive Government Organization Act, C.C.S.M. c. E170, states:

Presiding over departments

3(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint, under the Great Seal of the province, from among the ministers, to hold office during pleasure, a President of the executive council and ministers to preside over the several departments and to discharge such duties, exercise such powers and perform such functions as he may prescribe; and the Lieutenant Governor in Council may determine the titles by which those ministers shall be known.

Additional departments

3(2) One minister may be appointed to preside over two or more departments.

...

Transfer of minister's duties, etc.

5(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may transfer and assign to any minister, by name, title or otherwise, any or all of the powers, duties and functions given or imposed by law to or on any other minister.

Exercise of transferred powers, etc.

5(2) Where any or all of the powers, duties and functions of a minister are transferred to another minister under subsection (1), the minister to whom the powers, duties and functions are transferred may exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions under his title or the title of the minister from whom they are transferred.

References to ministers

5(3) Where, in any Act of the Legislature or any regulation, order or document, there is reference to a minister by title, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may designate another minister by name, title or otherwise, who shall be deemed to be the minister to whom reference is made in the Act, regulation, order or document.
